

Welcome to the 2014 American Board of Dental Public Health Symposium

“Sustainability in Providing Dental Care to Vulnerable Populations Across the Lifespan”

American Board of Dental Public Health

Our Speakers:

Michael Helgeson, DDS

Wayne Cottam, DDS, MS

Neal Demby, DMD, MPH

Our moderator:

George Taylor, DMD, MPH, DrPH

Immediate Past-President ABDPH

American Board of Dental Public Health

Michael Helgeson, DDS

“Keys to a Sustainable Model: The Apple Tree Experience”

- Current affiliations: Apple Tree Dental
- Previous affiliation: USPHS
- Landmark contribution(s):
 - 29 years, five programs, three replications and $150 million in care delivered

This presentation will present:

- Benefits of nonprofit structure and creating a culture of innovation.
- Keys to sustaining care delivery to underserved children, adults and elders living in urban and rural settings.

American Board of Dental Public Health

Wayne Cottam, DDS, MS

“The ASDOH Model for Serving Vulnerable Populations”

- Arizona School of Dentistry & Oral Health -
-ASDOH
- Community Health Centers – Salt Lake City
- Past - President of NNOHA

This presentation will provide:

- A brief overview of the ASDOH model for Community Based Education and Outreach to serve vulnerable populations now and in the future.

American Board of Dental Public Health

Neal Demby, DMD, MPH

“Strategies to Assure Access and Equity: Service Learning; Postdoctoral Residency Training, Educational Entrepreneurship and Disruptive Innovation as a Workforce Initiative”

- Current affiliation: Senior VP Dental Medicine, Lutheran Family Health Center Network.
- Leadership in developing sustainable post-doctoral residency training programs
- Leadership in quality improvement

This presentation will:

- Describe and assess an innovative approach to post doctoral residency training utilizing innovative strategies and disruptive innovation

American Board of Dental Public Health